

40 Leadership Wisdoms

1. To be defeated or to be victorious is founded in our ability to choose wisely.
2. When one does right - one cannot go wrong.
3. Success is not to be measured by your position, but by where you position yourself.
4. Difficulties cannot be overcome without difficulty.
5. Be careful of words so we don't have to eat them afterwards.
6. Anger can be the best motivator for change.
7. Fame sought through goodness – is not goodness.
8. When in doubt - do not pout.
9. Do not let yourself get ruined by instant compliments, instead let yourself be saved by intelligent criticism.
10. “No sooner said than done” are the words of a sound leader.
11. The depth of our conviction is more important than the height of our logic.
12. Look to what one does right when pointing out what one does wrong.
13. Don't listen to the crowds, create your own reality.
14. For those who submit to life without complaint are successful indeed.
15. Problems are opportunities for teaching moments.
16. The tiniest deed is better than the largest intention.
17. Nothing is ever permanent, so do not be too delighted in success, nor too devastated in defeat.
18. The discipline of desire is decisive impeccability.
19. More often than not, belief is the result of circumstances, but true belief endures in spite of circumstances.
20. A smart leader knows that thoughts create actions.

40 Leadership Wisdoms

21. A good leader can make a point without making a pointless enemy.
22. Money is an excellent servant, but a terrible master.
23. If you cannot help a hundred people, then just help one.
24. Never lead what you cannot live.
25. Don't stumble over the truth, just stick to it.
26. It is much easier to keep your integrity than to try and reclaim it.
27. Great wisdom is using foresight instead of hindsight.
28. Charisma can get things started but noble character is what keeps things going.
29. Only through humility can honor be reached.
30. Work in team, as team means - Together - Each - Accomplishes - More.
31. Deeds not plaques are the true monuments of the Great.
32. Openness keeps us optimistic even when we are exposed to criticism.
33. Never make a good excuse for a lousy decision.
34. When one stands tall, it strengthens the backbone of others.
35. Mistakes addressed are better ways for new ideas to come.
36. Motivation is when your dreams put on your work clothes.
37. Life is like a chess game, only those who take it seriously can take the lead.
38. Do not be concerned in your ability or inability; just be concerned in your availability.
39. Success lies hidden in the details.
40. Never think you are too small, the mightiest oak tree was once a little nut that held its ground.